LABEX WHO AM I?
2018-19 TRANSITION POST-DOC CALL

The Who Am I? Transition Post-Doc Program aims at financing a transition phase between the end of the PhD and the start of a postdoc in a different laboratory. Funding will be provided to PhD awarded researcher to complete their thesis project and publication in their PhD laboratory.

To be eligible, the candidate should defend his/her PhD before the end of December, 2018. The employment contract will start only after the PhD degree completion for an assignment of 6 months or 12 months in the candidate PhD laboratory.

The host laboratory should be part of the Who Am I? consortium and the submitted project should be relevant to identity and to Who Am I? scientific axis. Collaborative projects spanning different disciplines are encouraged.

The deadline to submit the research proposal (see below) is June 22, 2018.
Grant: post-doctoral fellow salary.
Duration: 6 months or 12 months.

Research proposal (max. 4 pages)

Names of the PI (s):
Who Am I? team (s):
Host institution (s):

Title of the project:

1) State of the art (1/2 page and 5 references)
2) General Objective of the Project
3) Results obtained during the PhD (1 page)
4) Research plan, expected results and outcomes for the transition post-doc period (please indicate the length of the funding requested: 6 or 12 months)
5) Relevance to identity and to Who Am I? scientific axis
6) 5 major publications (recent) of the host team(s)
7) Who Am I? financial support to the team(s) – for each funded project, please indicate the name of the project, involved teams and the associated call.

Candidate Post-doctoral Fellow

Interested candidates should submit:

- CV (1 page, including the date of PhD start, scheduled date for defense and PhD funding)
- List of publications

Application should be sent by email to: pauline.andreu@univ-paris-diderot.fr